FOREWORD

We the Purple Tiger Staff, are proud to present to you our 1955 Purple Tiger. This book has caught glimpses here and there, so that in years to come the activities of this school year at Watertown High will not be dimmed and will not fade from memory.

In later years, while turning these pages, if you should recall the many smiles, sorrows, and dreams of '55, we shall be content, knowing that we have done the thing we were called upon to do.

MRS. J. W. HOPKINS

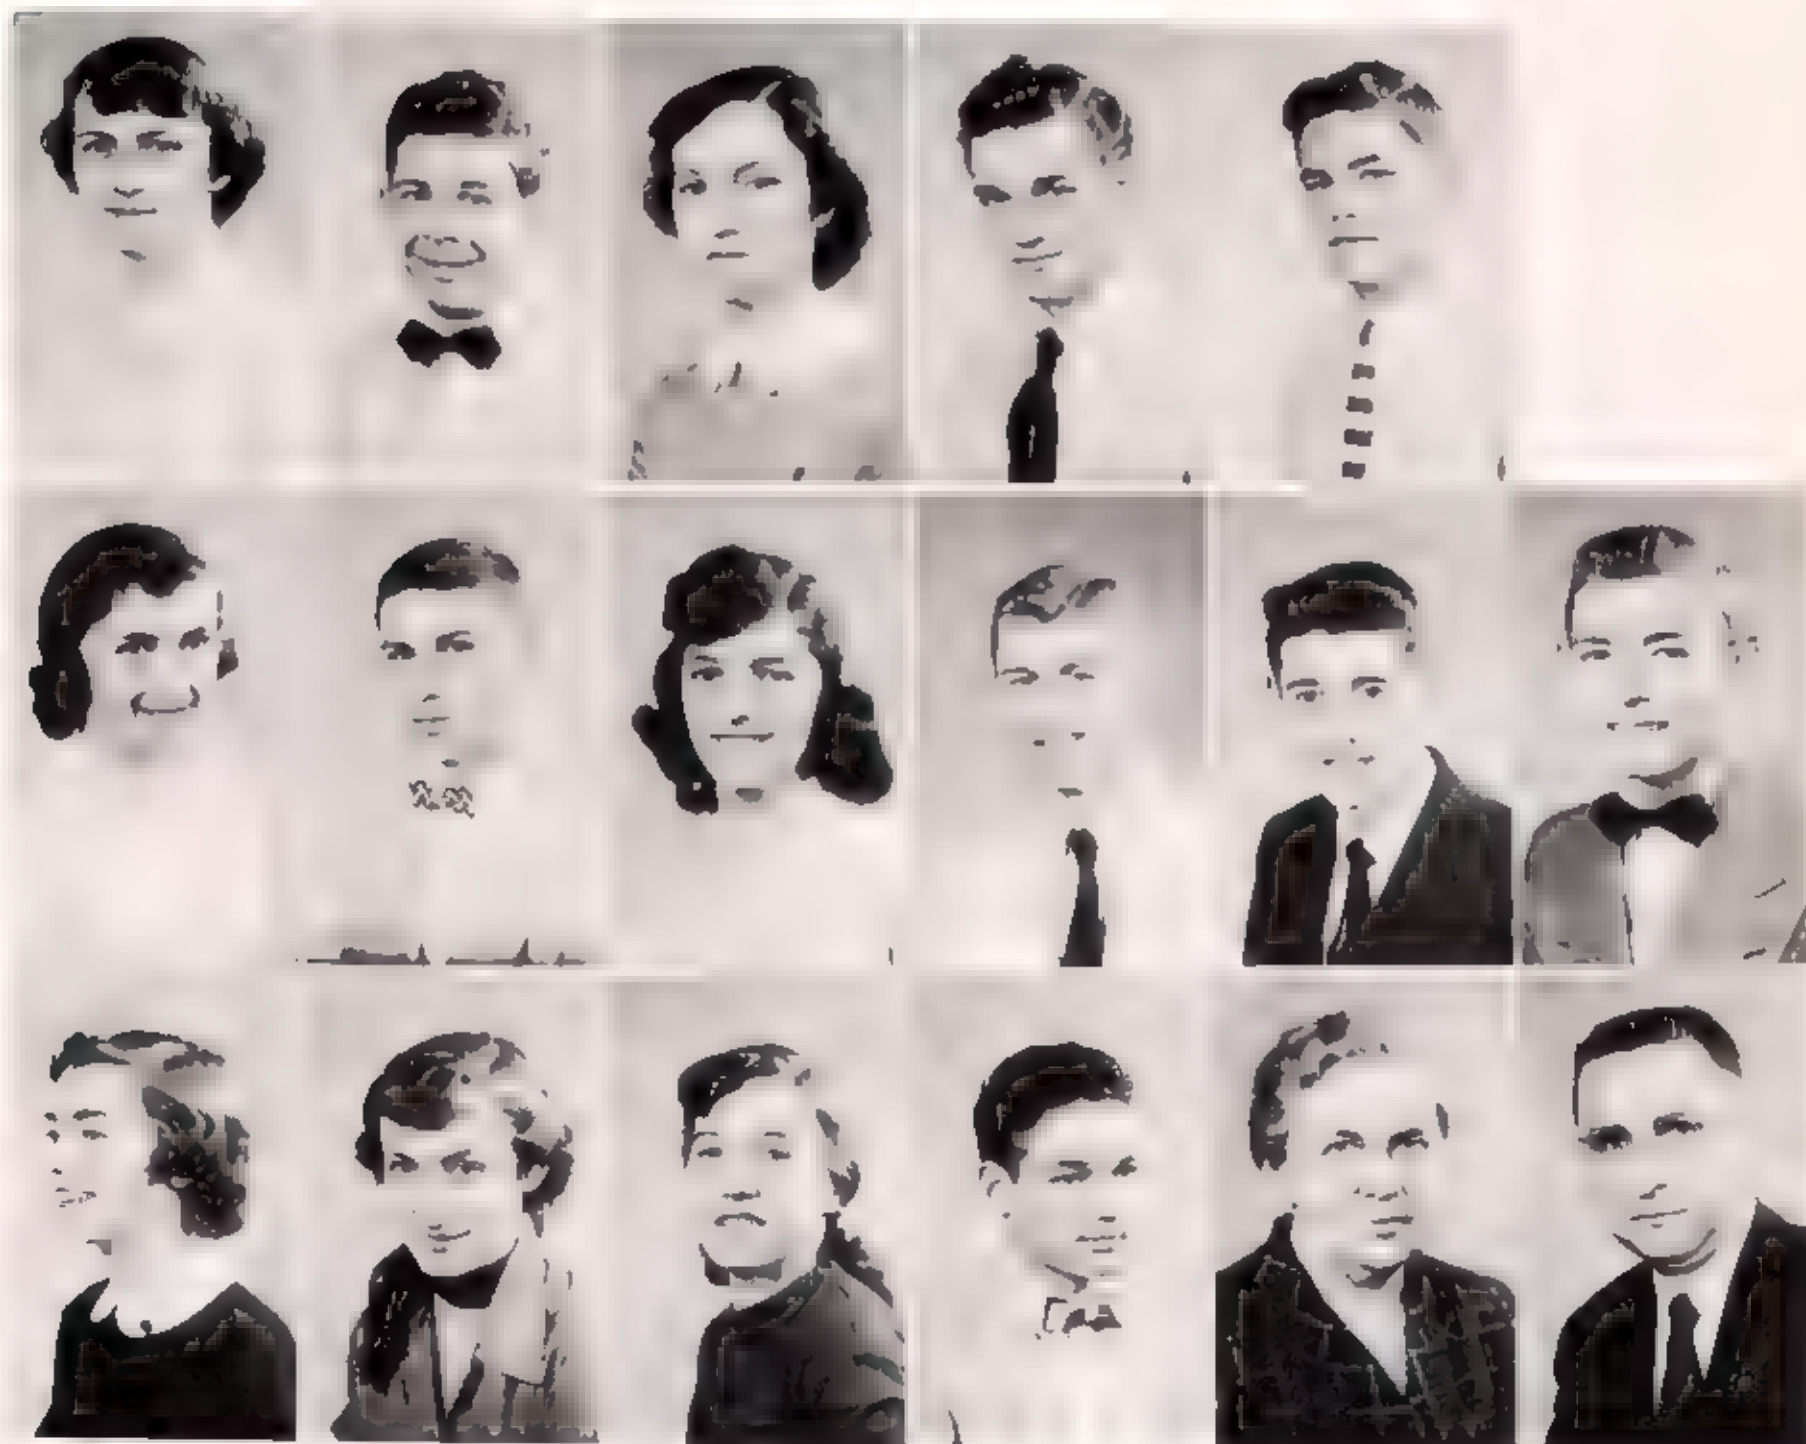

"Miss Elsie"

As a token of our appreciation of her whose loyalty and interests are one with ours, whose friendship is ever genuine, whose sympathy is sincere, whose patience is endless, and whose unstinted service and loyalty are ever an inspiration, we dedicate this annual.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Quo Vadis --- "Whither Goest Thou?"

This is the question uppermost in our minds, the faculty - parents and myself. Now I would like to direct this question to you. Try a little self-analysis - have you done your best - are you doing your best - will you continue to do your best. If all your answers to these three questions are in the affirmative, you undoubtedly know where you are going. But if the answer is negative, you had better do a little self-evaluation and see what's wrong - then correct it.

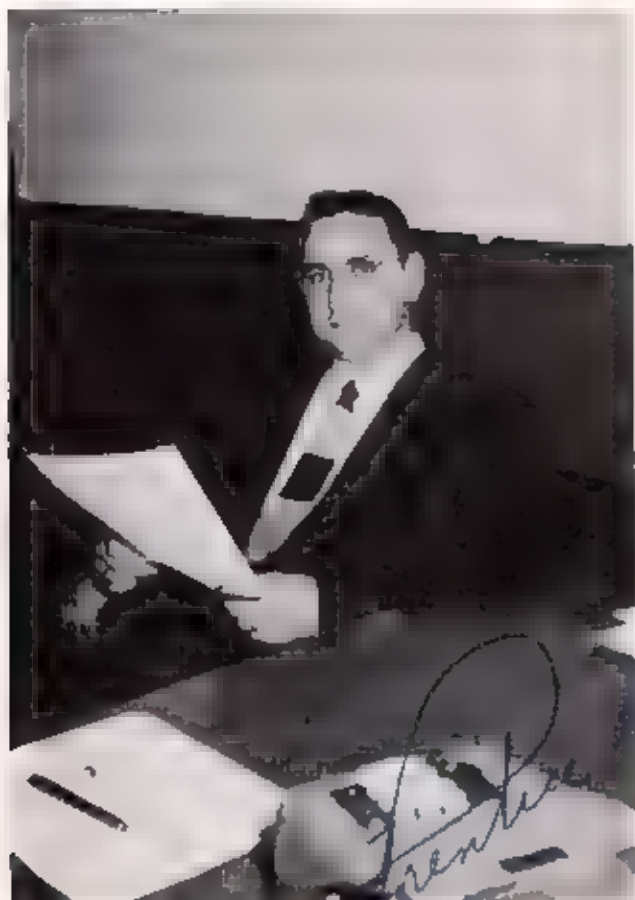

You are now seeking to establish yourselves in this community or some other that may not be alien. Some consider themselves inadequate to achieve real greatness in their chosen field so they take more advanced education. This does not mean you have to go to college to make your mark in society. College only makes it easier for you to accomplish your goal. You have often heard the saying, "It is hard to keep a good man down." Have you thought why? Because he is prepared to meet life.

We have found you to be understanding, co-operative, and sincere in your many scholastic endeavors. We know that through the years you have become prepared to meet the goals you hope to achieve where-ever you go.

If I, as principal, had a message for you it would be, "Where are you going?" When you can make an honest reply to this question you are on your way to success.

A black and white photograph of a desk. On the left, a desk lamp with a patterned shade is turned on, casting a warm glow. In the center, a calculator sits on a piece of paper. To the right, another piece of paper with some text is visible. The background is slightly blurred, showing more of the desk and possibly a chair.

THE HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1955

History has been written about important persons and things but you will agree there isn't a better or more important subject for history than our class of '55.

In 1943 an eager group of boys and girls entered Watertown Elementary School. Sixteen of these are in our Senior Class. They are: Ted Wright, Dot Bailey, Glen Beard, Gerald Cowan, Virginia Ann Jacobs, Don Hudson, Jessie Ruth Russell, Elbert Mathis, Don McClanahan, Marie Hall, Richard Donnell, Ben Thomas Powell, Betty Rhea Malone, Billy Joe Allison, Don Bass and I.

Those were happy years with all their happy experiences and wonderful teachers who guided us through the "tender years."

Time passed and soon we were in Junior High, which was different from our first years of school. At first we felt quite lost with all of those upper classmen, but soon learned their ways and got along with them very well.

As Freshmen in 1951 surely we felt we knew about all there was to know but as "Silly Sophomores" we found we had a great deal more to learn before going out to meet the world on our own.

As "Jolly Juniors" we were beginning to think of the future. Some of the outstanding things happening were the Junior-Senior Banquet, selecting our rings, electing our class officers.

Again time rapidly passed and now we are Seniors. This year has been packed with many exciting things, such as: receiving our class rings, electing class officers, electing annual staff, electing paper staff, Junior-Senior Banquet, sports, publishing "The Purple Tiger", class play and Commencement exercises.

Soon we shall be graduating. To our sponsors, Miss Elwe Griffith and Mr. P.L. Gott, and the entire faculty, we thank you for your wonderful guidance during our school days.

To each '55 senior, face the future the way you have faced these past 12 years and I know you can't go wrong.

Peggy La Fevor

CLASS POEM

United we stand, divided we fall,
United we've stood though the number was small;
Together we've lived these past few years
And the thought of departure brings sorrow and tears.

Many happy days we have spent here
As we struggled on from year to year;
But the time has come when we must depart
And a new era in our lives will start.

There is work to be done, this work we will do;
We will do much before our lives are through;
There is a world to conquer and wars to fight,
There is the old to change and the wrong to make right.

May this class of fifty five be a success tomorrow;
May there be much happiness and very little sorrow;
May our deeds blossom forth like a blooming flower,
And we will offer our thanks to a higher power.

Now we are leaving, where will we go?
We all have plans, but we don't know.
We are leaving here with ambitions high,
Schoolmates, Teachers and Friends--good by.

PROPHECY OF THE

It was the year 1965--ten years after I graduated from Watertown High School.

As I sat in my living room one afternoon, my mind began to wander back to old W.H.S. and my classmates of '55. I decided that I would look up my classmates to see what they had chosen for their life's vocation.

After quite a bit of inquiring, this is what I learned:

Eleanor Robertson, the quiet girl in our class, is operating a beauty salon in Statesville, Tennessee.

Ben Thomas Powell soon gave up the ideal of progressive farming and became the editor of the Lebanon Democrat.

One morning as I was passing the high school building, I saw quite a few of my classmates. I learned that Billie J. Kyle was teaching shorthand, Harold Taylor was teaching chemistry, Don McClanahan, American History, and Doyle Gannon occupied the principal's chair.

As I glanced through the Nashville Banner that afternoon, I saw these words: "A Great Revival to Be Held at the Vanderbilt Stadium." I read on. Don Hudson was to be the Evangelist and Elbert Mathis was to direct the congregation in singing.

As I turned the page, my eyes caught the glimpse of a familiar face. Yes, it was Douglas Cluck. Under the picture were these words, "Baseball Champion."

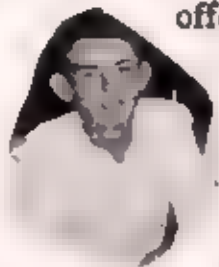

The First Baptist Church was the scene of a wedding the following day--that of Betty A. Malone and Don Bass.

Gerald Cowan and Jimmie D. Sherrill are old bachelors now. They can be seen in town every Saturday afternoon.

Homer Snyder is a very successful mechanic in Lebanon.

There is a sign at Linwood that reads: "Beard and Tribble Funeral Home. We offer you the best."

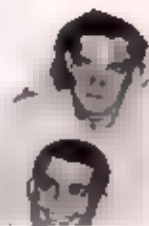

Virginia Jacobs is a very prominent housewife, --by the way--Harris is the name.

Minnie R. Lanier is happily married and lives in Sykes.

Ted Wright now owns the Jewelry Shop in Watertown.

Kenneth Bailey owns a Dry Goods Store in Cherry Valley.

CLASS

Do you want your home redecorated? Call Betty A. Beadle, the famous interior decorator, at Norene.

If you are looking for Charleen Tubb, you might find her in the projection room of the Royal Theater, Watertown.

Dot Bailey and Junior are married and live on Beech Log Road.

Mack Corley is a Private Detective in New York.

Billy Joe Allison still lives at Buckeye Corner.

Callie Mae Williams stars as Myrtle in "What Are You Waiting For?", and Roy V. Murphy stars as Dick.

J. W. Murphy is selling tombstones to make a living now.

Harold D. Johnson is the doctor in Watertown now.

Betty R. Malone is a famous nurse in Texas.

Peggy LaFevor is a cashier at the Commerce Union Bank in Lebanon.

Jackie Wright has a home in Alexandria, and has learned to sing Rock-A-Bye Baby well.

Jessie R. Russell is a seamstress.

Richard Donnell is a car salesman for Keatts-McDowell & Co.

One night as I passed Oma Lee Baines' house, I heard her praying. "Lord send me a man", she said. An old owl was sitting in the tree. "Who-ooo" he said. "Just anybody, Lord, just anybody", she said.

The story goes, "The best of prophets of the future is the past."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS

We, the Senior Class of Watertown High School, of the city of Watertown, County of Wilson, and the state of Tennessee, being of sound body and weak mind, do hereby leave this our last will and testament.

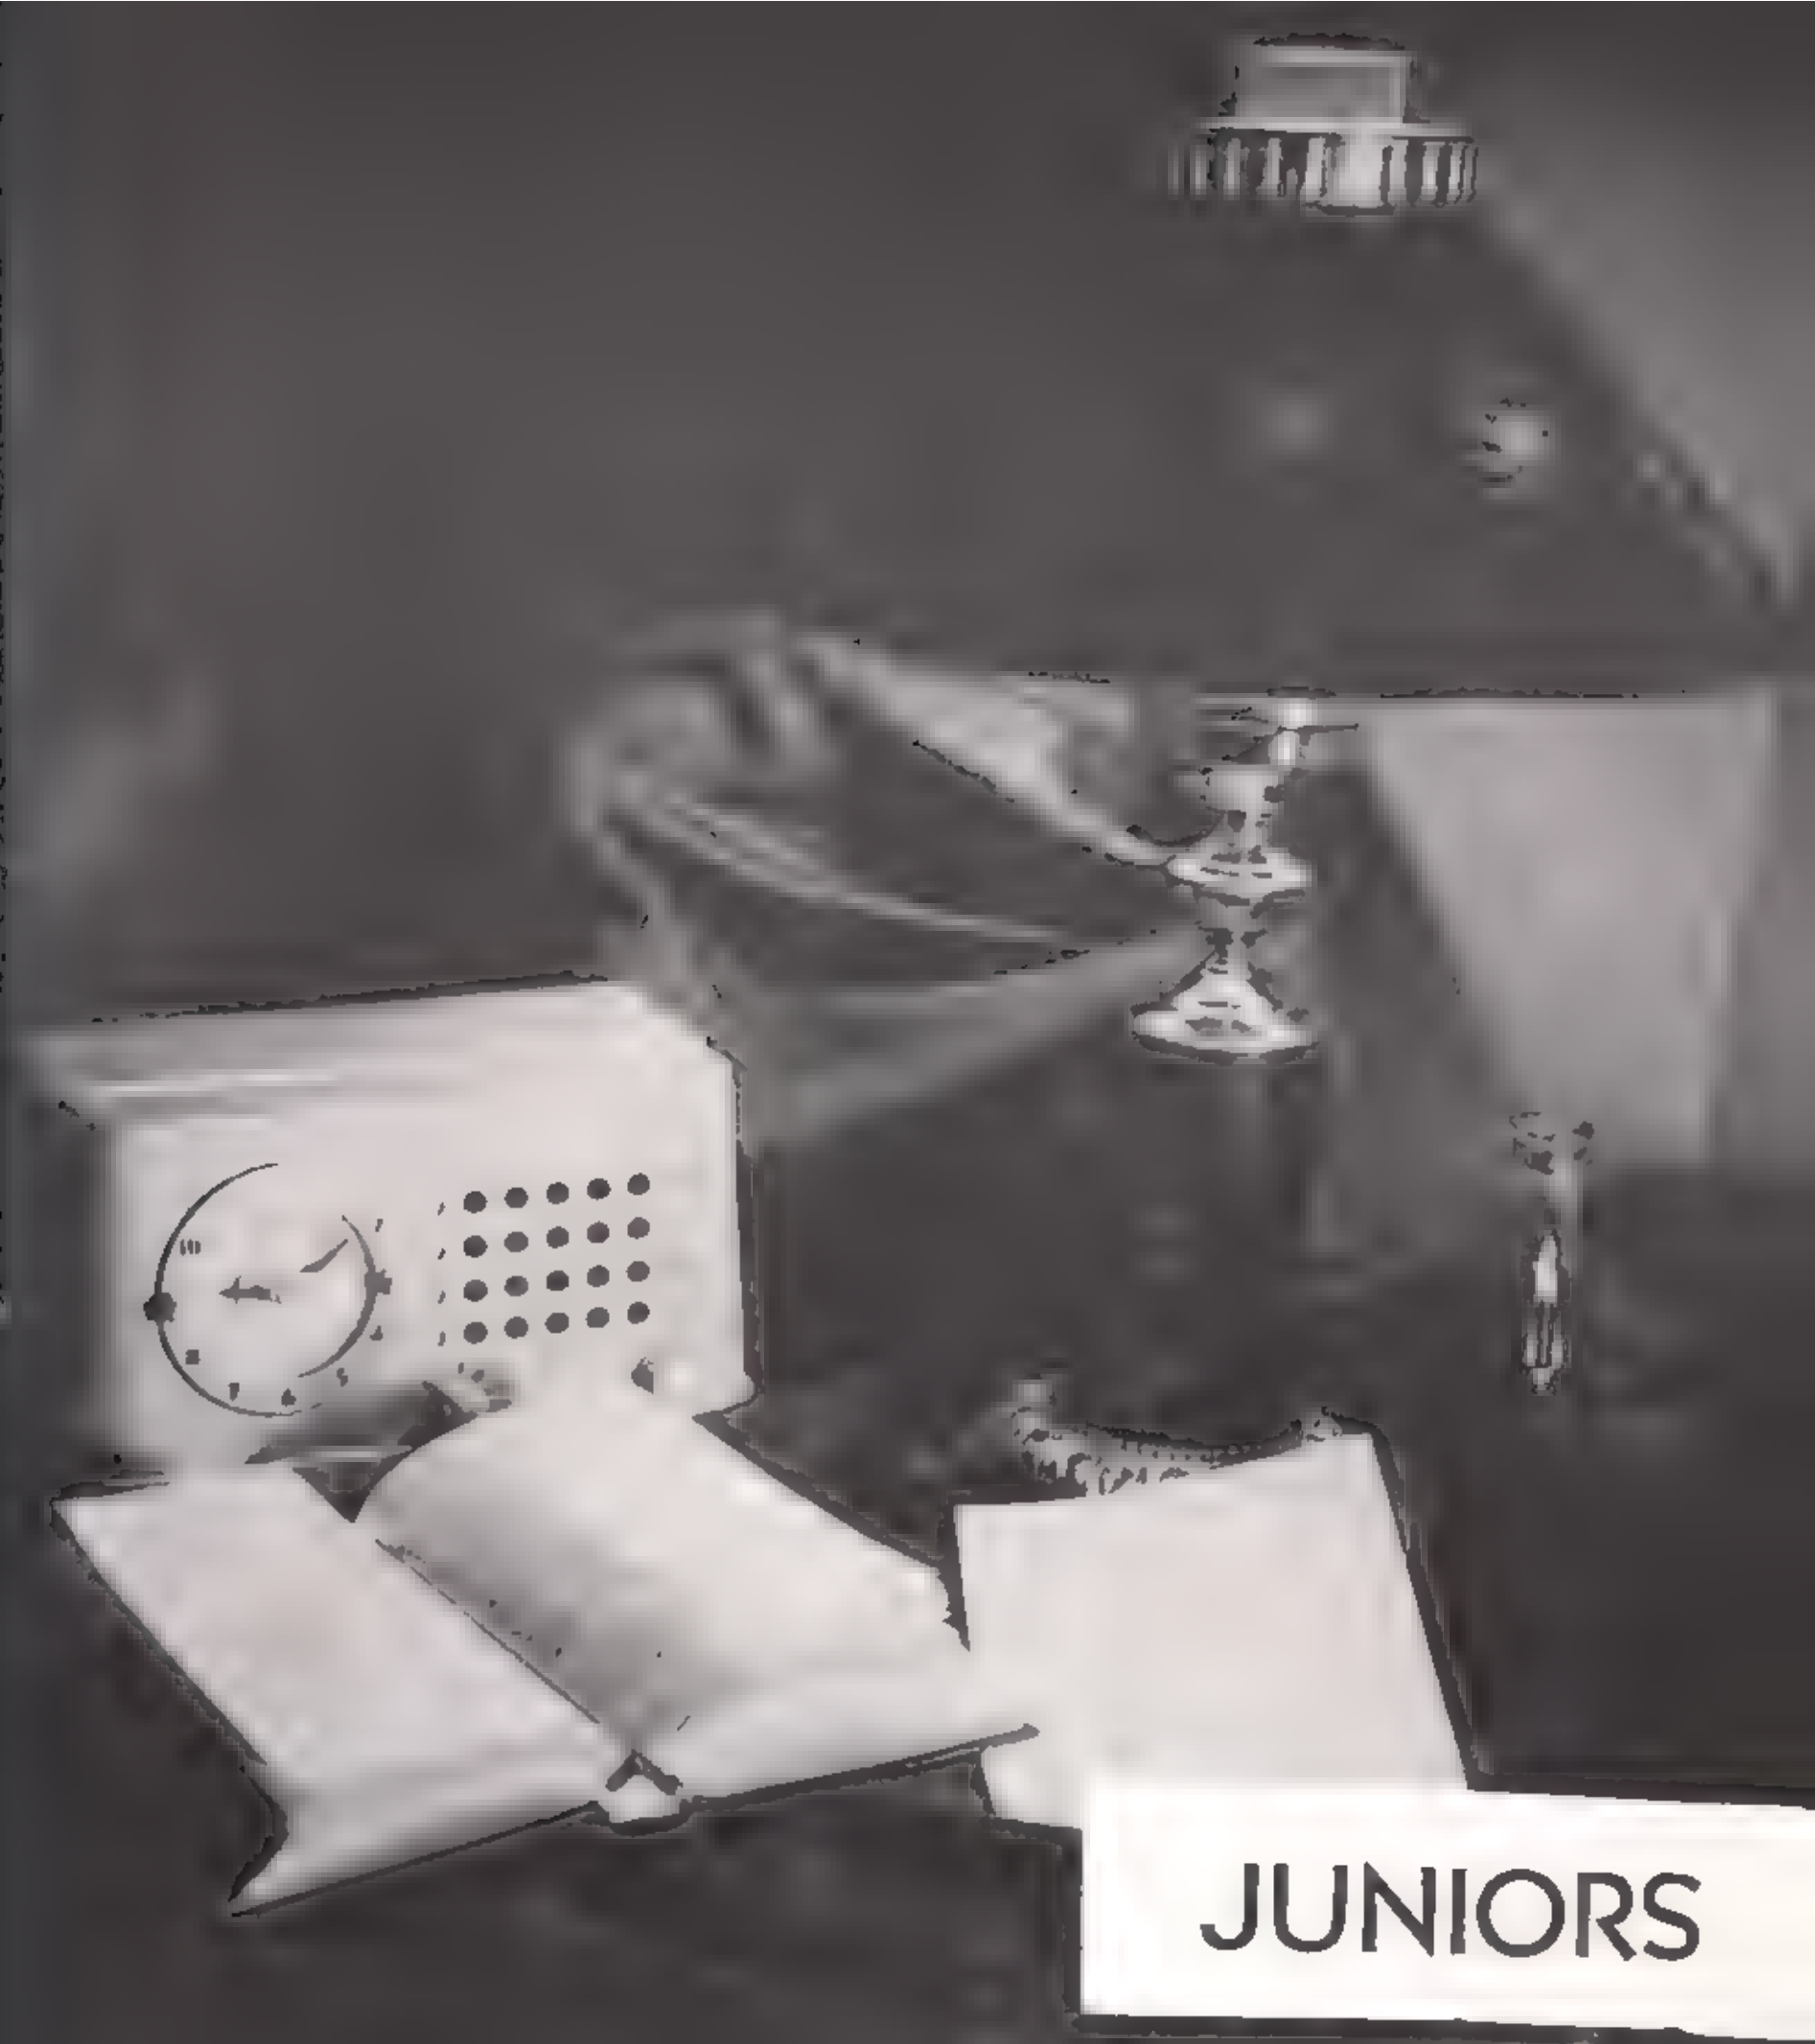

Betty Rhea Malone leaves her love for diamonds to Delores Simpson.
Dot Bailey leaves her sweet ways to Jean Simpson.
Callie Mae Williams wills her love for tall, blond boys to Ruby Lannom.
Betty Ann Beadle leaves her enthusiastic ways to Polly Dinges.
Jr. Bain leaves, to Elmo Mount, his love being Sgt. at Arms.
Homer Snyder leaves his ability to take care of the North End of town to Herbert Dedmon.
Jessie Ruth Russell keeps her giggling ways in the family by leaving them to her cousin, Barbara.
Marie Hall leaves her love for shorthand to Shelby Hall.
Betty Ann Malone leaves her quiet and shy ways to her sister, Helen.
Minnie Ruth Lanier wills everything but Denver to Nell Lanier.
Eleanor Robertson wills her noisy ways to Pat Griffith.
Oma Lee Bain wills her "big mouth" to Arah Mae Bradley.
Mack Corley leaves his love for social studies to Charles A. Bell.
"Red" McClanahan wills his happy smile to Tommy Curtis.
Ted Wright leaves his "triflin' ways" to Billy Patton.
Harold Dean Johnson leaves his ability to win friends to Albert Donnell.
Jackie Wright leaves his love for "Alex" to Jerry Self.
Doyle Gannon wills his love for "Commerce" to anyone who's lucky.
Booty Bailey wills his love for "Coon Huntin'" to Mr. Gott and Mr. Spears.
Elbert Mathis Leaves his love for reading good books to Cecil Carter.
Ben T. Powell leaves his successful ways of farming to T. C. Beard.
Glen Beard wills his quiet, retiring ways to Hines Rucker.
Richard Donnell leaves his "aggravating ways" to Leland Cunningham.
Harold Taylor wills his "disagreeing with everyone" to Jimmy Hudson.
Peggy LaFever leaves her noisy but sweet ways to her brother, Jack.
Haney Tribble leaves his "giggling ways" to Roy Smith.
Don Hudson leaves his beautiful voice to JoAnn Newby.
Don Bass leaves his ability to be quiet to William Bly.
Douglas Cluck leaves his political ambitions to Mr. Baker.
Gerald Cowan wills his "Hillbilly ways" and "big mouth" to his sister, Sue.
Billy Jean Kyle leaves her love for the name Wright to Judy Curtis.
Roy Van Murphy wills his ability to play basketball to some lucky Jr.
J. W. Murphy wills his ability to drive a noisy car to J. L. Taylor.
Tootsie Jacobs leaves everything of hers, but Henry, to Mary Ann Patton.
Jimmy Sherrill leaves all his boisterous, impudent ways to Albert Allison.
And I leave to Bettye Jo Malone my love for the "theater business".
